CHERRY LEAF AND CHERRYFLAME.

Harlem's program was that of an "off day," but the average crowd was out and the people seemed to bet as eagerly on the events carded as they would on races engaged in by better cattle. The system used at this racetrack whereby no one is advised as to horses going to the post until the "they're off" bell sounds having been found agreeable to the public is a strong prop to the argument that race-goers are much more speculative than formerly and care little whether or not they see the horses run. At the time of the first race four-fifths of the crowd was in the betting ring until the horses struck into the last eighth. The day was fine and the track fast.

The excellence of John Huffman as a trainer was never more apparent than when Tulla Fonso won the fifth race. Here she showed the ability to "go on" whereas at a shorter distance the very day before she had stopped at the finish. The betting did not show that a coup was effected, and the performance must be relegated to the list of inexplicable things known on the turf. Tulla Fonso, off in front (carrying 105 against the 102 of Monday) was not headed, although run close on the end by Canace. Survivor was third all the way. Starter Dwyer, having made ten excellent consecutive starts here, made a miscue, leaving Jolly Roger, the favorite, at the post. The horse is a slow beginner, but ran fifth. Miss Marks was fourth. The latter had J. Reiff posted as her jockey and was backed at 5 to 1. Then Sweeney announced Stanhope on Miss Marks, whose price was then raised to 8 to 1. In a few moments an agent of the judge called: "Put J. Reiff on Miss Marks," and her price again receded. It seems that Col. Clark had reconsidered his action looking to keeping in line with the pronouncement that J. Reiff should only ride twice a day.

B. J. Johnston, who formerly owned Tulla Blackburn, the dam of Tulla Fonso, said: "The filly is just like her dam, which was one of the greatest of gluttons for work. We used to work her at full speed one day and then she would run your eye out the next. Tulla Fonso's race Monday just set her. They were down on her 'hook, line and sinker' then to beat Frank Bell. But she stopped and was even beaten by Miss Marks for the place. Today Huffman had a ten-dollar bill on his filly straight and two dollars to show."

The betting on the first race was very light, Yo No Se being installed the favorite at 2 to 1. The lead was taken by Ramlet, and she was not headed until close home, although Bloss, who beat her with Miss Dooley, could have gone to the front at any time after leaving the last eighth post. Anna Held was close to Ramlet at the turn for home, and all at once, what was supposed to be this beauty, shot to the outside and carried over about ten horses with her. Mendacious made a showing in the homestretch, but La Josephine finished third, while Rosavannah was fairly well up.

For the second race Cochise set the pace, Cherry Leaf and David Tenny close to him, up the back stretch, midway of which Canero led the rear division, Candelaria trailing. Swinging into the home stretch Cherry Leaf headed Cochise, and David Tenny at once set sail for the leader. Three sixteenths from home the favorite seemed to be beaten but at the final eighth David Tenny struggling along got to Cherry Leaf's neck, he being near the inside fence. Cherry Leaf drew away under the whip and inside the last sixteenth "Skeets" pulled up the favorite who was beaten handily to the wire. Candelaria finished a fair third with Topmast fourth. A large crowd gathered around the judges stand expecting Cherry Leaf to be disqualified, but Col. Clark placed the horses as they finished. This taken in connection with the Treachery case of the day previous has given the impression that the presiding judge will hereafter favor eastern ideas as to unintentional fouls and some persons assert that this system is the best.

Hindoonet and Afamada had the third race to themselves, the former leading to the middle of the upper turn, apparently on sufferance, the latter then coming on and winning handily. Dousterswivel, whipped through the last eighth, just lasted long enough to beat Good Friend a head for the third money. The others not dangerous at any stage. Opponent fell on the back stretch. Ross was his jockey, but so far was he from being injured that he was substituted for Seaton on Plantain in the fourth race. Livadia also fell without injury to her jockey, Ellis, he being up on Lady Callahan.

To a good start in the next race Lady Callahan dashed through next the rails knocking against Yuba Dam, who was then cut off and shoved back so that around the turn only Dare II. was behind him. Lady Callahan led for nearly five-eighths, then Buckvidere, from fourth position, moved up rapidly, and entering the straight he had everything safe and galloped the balance of the way, winning from Dunois, second, which horse landed the place money from Yuba Dam because the latter staggered in the final strides. Lady Callahan lasted well and finished close up. Dunois had evidently been ridden a waiting race. Plantain and Her Favor were second and third at the half, but died off before reaching seven-eighths.

In the final event Hermoso made the pace for Abe Furst, who ran second for one-half mile. Here Cherryflame and Bishop Reed came up from the fourth and fifth positions and went to the front, the former winning with a great deal left from Bishop Reed. Hermoso stopped dead and was up at the sixteenth when Cherryflame passed the judges. Count Fonso came from the rear with a great burst of speed and got the third money away from Abe Furst. Lew Hopper made his usual good showing in on the inside rail, but when the crowd yelled, "Lew Hopper wins," it was only an optical delusion. Reuben Rowett ran fast in the straight but swerved badly.

John S. Campbell has reached Hawthorne from Montana with H. L. Frank's string of twelve horses. The car arrived yesterday morning.

Charles Hughes is in town and said: "I hope to be up with a good horse later. One must have a good one nowadays to win at Chicago."

Winner—Br. f, by Clarendon—Gossip.

Off first break to a good start. The first three were driving to the limit. Miss Dooley was well ridden and lucky. Bloss took the short route and saved a lot of ground throughout. It was only through Everett's kindness, though, that he got through at the head of the stretch. Had the latter closed in a trifle he would have sharply shut Miss Dooley off. It was a clean piece of riding. Ramlet was fortunate in getting off and showed considerable speed, but tired at the end as though short. La Josephine ran the best race of the bunch. She had a very rough journey, but stood it gamely. Rosavannah came fast at the end. This filly deserves attention in the same kind of company. Yo No Se was on the outside and obliged to run all around the field. Both Sidtilla and Anna Held quit badly in the stretch. The latter tried to run out. Florence Fink performed creditably.

Scratched—Queen's Pawn, 115; Thought So, 107; Wilmington's Pet, 107.

Miss Dooley, place, 2 to 1; show, even. Ramlet, place, 4 to 1; show, 2 to 1. La Josephine, show, 4 to 1.

Winner—B. c, 4, by Athelstan—Sunbeam.

Post 3 minutes. Start good. Won cleverly at the end after a hard early drive. Cherry Leaf seems to be back to his Washington Park form. He ran a corking good race and had David Tenny beaten swinging into the stretch. At that point Martin was whipping hard while Rutter on Cherry Leaf was simply hand riding. Midway between the turn and the eighth pole David Tenny seemed to come again. Cherry Leaf bore over a trifle and there was slight interference but not enough to cause any difference in the result. Tenny was clearly beaten but Martin tried the old fake of pulling up. He claimed foul but it was not allowed. Candelaria is a stretch runner. He was galloping over horses at the end. This race will put Canero on edge. He ran much better than the figures show and deserves attention from now on. So does Cochise in lower company at a shorter route.

Scratched—Linda, 103; Winslow, 99; Charley Christy, 105; Summer Sea, 99; Croesus, 89.

Cherry Leaf, place, 4 to 3; show, 1 to 3. David Tenny, place, 1 to 4. Candelaria, show, even.

Winner—Br. f, by Duke of Montrose—Laura W.

Post 3 minutes. Start fair. Won driving; next three driving even harder. It was a bad race to extract form from. There was a lot of bumping at the start and all through the journey. Good Friend darted in as the barrier went up almost throwing Heigh Ho and going down herself. The chances are she was the best as she made up a lot of ground and finished strong. Afamada and Hindoonet were lucky to escape interference, both were clear of the bunch and had clear sailing. Hindoonet was tiring badly at the end. Afamada, on the other hand, had something left. Dousterswivel would have been a keen contender with a better rider. He was bumped and jostled and cut off at every turn. Neither Ellis nor Rose was hurt in the fall.

Scratched—Julia Hazel, 102.

Afamada, place, 3 to 2; show, 7 to 10. Hindoonet, place, 8 to 5; show, 4 to 5. Dousterswivel, show, 12 to 1.

Winner—Ch. c. by Belvidere—Elkhorn Lass.
Post 3 minutes. Start good. Won hand ridden and out to the last ounce; the next three were driving hard. Buckvidere awoke with a start. His race was a great improvement over any he has shown on the local tracks. In fact it was a sudden form reversal. McDonald took no chances. He went after Lady Callahan down the back stretch and had a commanding lead when straightened away for home. Dupois was ridden the long route. He was best and was watching Buckvidere fast at the finish. Yuba Dam was a very tired horse after the race. Dare II. saved a lot of ground on the stretch turn. Lady Callahan and Plantain raced each other to piece early. Rose, on the latter, interfered with everyone but Lady Callahan on the first turn.
Overweights—Lady Callahan, 2 pounds.
Buckvidere, place, 2 to 1; show, 6 to 5. Dupois, place, 7 to 10. Yuba Dam, show, 3 to 5.

Winner—B. f. by Fonso—Tulla Blackburn.
Post 8 minutes. Start good. Won hand ridden and staggering; the next two were extremely busy. This was another form reversal. Considering the distance was a half furlong more and Tulla Fonso was picking up three pounds more weight than she carried the day previous, it did not look on that race as though she had a possible chance to beat Miss Marks. The latter came from behind in the last race and beat Fonso. Today, however, Fonso had speed to loan and Miss Marks seemed to run dull. Jolly Roger ran nowhere near his last performance. He, though, had a lot of bad luck and his race may be excused. Canace was right there all the way and it looked at the eighth pole as though she would beat Tulla Fonso. Survivor could never get up. He was hand ridden, though, all the way. Hanlight looked high in flesh and evidently needed a race.

Scratched—Billy House, 100.

Tulla Fonso, place, 4 to 1; show, 2 to 1. Canace, place, 2 to 1; show, even. Survivor, show, 3 to 5.

Winner—B. f. by Iroquois—Hettie S.
Post 6 minutes. Start fair. Won easily; the next three were under full sail. Cherryflame got off in a nice position and there was never a spot in the road that she did not look a winner. Martin knew the two in front of him—Abe Furst and Hermoso—were quitters and waited for them to come back. On the far turn he made his move and about that time the two leaders came back and the way

Winner—Br. f. by Masetto—Rupes.
Post 8 minutes. Start good. Won easily; the next three were in a hard drive. Turtle Dove raced without blinkers today and seemed to act more kindly. She has both a yellow streak and a sour disposition and is always a bad betting proposition. Lufra closed strong. She likes a route. Mazeppa came away when ready and had no trouble in winning. Miss Verne and Turtle Dove raced each other to pieces.

Overweights—Harrie Floyd, 24 pounds; Marioni, 24.

Mazeppa, place, even; show, 1 to 2. Lufra, place, 8 to 5; show, 3 to 5. Miss Verne, show, 3 to 5.

Winner—Ch. f. by Loyalist—Marionette.
Post 8 minutes. Start good. The first five were in a hard drive. Bessie was lucky and out of all trouble. At that her previous races did not justify her long price. The jockey on her made the price. Volandies did as well as possible, handicapped as he was by his rider. Mayme M M always slow to begin, finished strong. If she could have gotten through she might have won. La Fayette was tiring at the end.

Scratched—Contravene, 95.

Winner—Blk. f. by Midlothian—Miss Woodford.
Start straggling. Won easily. Sombre beat the gate and had all possible luck. Frances Booker lost a length at the start and closed a big gap. She is evidently a stayer and was certainly the best today. Anitra finished gamely. Incandescent stopped at the end and is only ordinary. The Lady in Blue broke flatfooted. She made up a lot of ground all too soon and looked like a winner at the stretch turn, but quit in the last eighth. Gaze ran finely but had small chance with her jockey, who took the long route. Rose May was running easily to the stretch. Lindula was off badly.

Sc atched—Effervescent, 110.

Overweights—Rose May, 2 pounds.

Sombre, place, even; show, 1 to 2. Frances Booker, place, 8 to 5; show, 4 to 5. Anitra, show, 3 to 1.

Winner—B. g. by Charaxus—Contenta.
Start straggling. Won easily. Charentus was off flying and all the others broke flatfooted and tangled up. He was a good horse today. Nosey was almost left and was easily the best. He closed strong and game and is in good form. Headlight showed astonishing form for him and is good. Tinge closed very strongly. Her Own is of no present account. Arquebus appears to be best on the grass course. The same applies to Octave. High Priest was lucky and ran well. Knight of the Garter was bumped out of the race on the first turn and sulked. He got a very bad ride. Throw his race out.

Scratched—Mount Washington, 103; Lady Disdain, 98.

Overweights—High Priest, 2 pounds; Arquebus, 1; Knight of the Garter, 1; Doggett, 1.

Charentus, place, 8 to 5; show, 4 to 5. Nosey, place, even; show, 1 to 2. Headlight, show, 15 to 1.

Winner—Ch. f. by Fonso—The Belle.
Start fair. Won driving. Belle of Troy, off flying, lightly weighted and lucky, was probably the best, although Domineer was a wild horse to the stretch and looked like a sure winner, but got an inferior ride. He is very good and likes the track. Jean Ingelow closed strong. So did Exception, who had a poor rider on her back. Both woke up suddenly. Somers and Shaft'r ran badly. Watch Fast Black when placed properly. Her hard race at a mile the day before hurt her. Glenheim chucked it up badly after going a half, but probably it was due to a bumping received on the turn. Monletta looked good but showed no speed.

Overweights—Belle of Troy, 2 pounds.

Belle of Troy, place, 3 to 1; show, 7 to 5. Domineer, place, 5 to 1; show, 2 1/2 to 1. Jean Ingelow, show, 2 to 1.

Winner—B. f. by Bermuda—Satella.
Start good. Won easily. Lilian Bell was benefited by the suppressed only contenders. Kenmore Queen, Miss Tenny and St. Callatine, racing off in front, all three stopping to a walk the last furlong. Lilian Bell appears to be very good now. High Jinks was shut off at the half mile and looked hopelessly out of the race, but closed like a whirlwind. Kenmore Queen hung on and is in very good form. Handpress closed strong. Loiterer and Lennep quit to nothing. Scratched—George Keene, 111; Blarneystone, 101; Flax Spinner, 101; Tabouret, 98.

Lilian Bell, place, 8 to 5; show, 4 to 5. High Jinks, place, 5 to 1; show, 2 1/2 to 1. Kenmore Queen, show, 2 to 1.

Winner—Br. f. by Iroquois—Wild Flower.
Start good. Won driving. White Frost is very good and was well handled. Handball failed to sulk and was benefited by the leaders setting a terrific pace and falling away at the end. He looks good. Keene was run to a stand still. He was very speedy today but must always have a little in reserve to win. Bon Ino closed surprisingly after appearing to be hopelessly beaten. Floronso was a grand horse today but had a scant chance with his ride. Sir Gawain was running fast at the end. Geisha was short. Lady Marian was eased through the stretch. Watch her in the mud.

Scratched—Algol, 133; Marsian, 90.

White Frost, place, even; show, 1 to 2. Handball, place, 10 to 1; show, 4 to 1.
